Verses of Scripture

THE NAVAL PSALM (Psalm 107: 23-31)

Some went down to the sea in ships, doing business on the great waters.

ALL: They saw the deeds of the Lord, His wondrous works in the deep.

For He commanded, and raised the stormy wind,
which lifted up the waves of the sea.

ALL: They mounted up to heaven, they went down to the depths; their courage melted away in their evil plight.

They reeled and staggered like drunken men, and were at their wit's end.

ALL: Then they cried to the Lord in their trouble, and
He delivered them from their distress.

He made the storm be still, and the waves of the sea were hushed.

ALL: Then they were glad because they had quiet, and He brought them to their desired haven.

Let them thank the Lord for His steadfast love, for his wonderful works to the sons of men!

ALL: Whoever is wise, let him give heed to these things; let men consider the steadfast love of the Lord.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit.

ALL: As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be; world without end. AMEN

Reading – Revelation 21: 1-7

The New Jerusalem

Then I saw a new heaven and a new earth, for the first heaven and the first earth had passed away, and there was no longer any sea. I saw the Holy City, the new Jerusalem, coming down out of heaven from God, prepared as a bride beautifully dressed for her husband. And I heard a loud voice from the throne saying, “Now the dwelling of God is with men, and he will live with them. They will be his people, and God himself will be with them and be their God. He will wipe every tear from their eyes. There will be no more death or mourning or crying or pain, for the old order of things has passed away.”

He who was seated on the throne said, “I am making everything new!” Then he said, “Write this down, for these words are trustworthy and true.”

He said to me: “It is done. I am the Alpha and the Omega, the Beginning and the End. To him who is thirsty I will give to drink without cost from the spring of the water of life. He who overcomes will inherit all this, and I will be his God and he will be my son.

Prayers

God of grace and glory, we remember those who have gone before us, especially those who lost their lives in HMAS SYDNEY II and HSK KORMORAN, they have stood by us and helped us, they have cheered us by their sympathy and strengthened us by their example; help us so live, that in dying, we may rejoice with them in the promise of the glorious resurrection; through your Son, our Redeemer. Amen.

Heavenly Father, we commend to you all those who serve in the defence forces of this land. Guard and protect them in danger and temptation; sustain them in loneliness; and support them in sickness and anxiety. Bless all those who minister to them. Watch over those who are near and dear to them and grant them the blessing of your presence. These things we ask through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Lord Jesus, we confess that we are slow to accept death as an inevitable part of life. We confess our reluctance to surrender our friends and loved ones into your eternal care. You, Lord Jesus, know the depth of our sorrow; you also wept at the grave of your friend Lazarus. Let the Holy Spirit come upon us now, the Comforter you promise. Grant us your love and peace as we reach out to comfort one another. Be our companion as we live each day and, even as we mourn, may all that we feel, think, say and do bear witness to our faith in you as our Lord and Saviour. Amen.

The Naval Prayer - By Chief of Navy - Vice Admiral Russ Shalders AO, CSC, RAN

O Eternal Lord God, who alone spreads out the heavens, and rules the raging of the sea; who has compassed the waters with bounds until day and night come to an end: Be pleased to receive into your Almighty and most gracious protection the persons of us your servants, and the Fleet in which we serve.

Preserve us from the dangers of the sea, and from the violence of the enemy; that we may be a safeguard unto our Sovereign, Queen Elizabeth, and her Dominions, and a security for such as pass on the seas upon their lawful occasions; that the inhabitants of our land may on peace and quietness serve you our God.

And that we may return in safety to enjoy the blessing of the land, with the fruits of our labours, and with thankful remembrance of your mercies to praise and glorify your holy name, through Jesus Christ our Lord. AMEN

The Lord's Prayer - said together

Our Father in heaven, hallowed by thy name.
Thy kingdom come, thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us today our daily bread and forgive us our trespasses,
as we forgive those who trespass against us.
Lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom, the power and the glory,
for ever and ever, Amen.

Naval Hymn

Eternal Father, strong to save,
Whose arm doth bind the restless wave,
Who bidst the mighty ocean deep
Its own appointed limits keep:
O hear us when we cry to thee
For those in peril on the sea.

Lord, guard and guide the men who fly
Through the great spaces in the sky.
Be with them always in the air,
In darkening storms or sunlight fair;
Oh, hear us when we lift our prayer,
For those in peril in the air!

O Trinity of love and power,
Our brethren shield in danger's hour
From rock and tempest, fire and foe,

Protect them wheresoe'er they go:
Thus evermore shall rise to thee
Glad hymns of praise from land and sea.

HMAS SYDNEY II

Prayer of Dedication of cylinder and wreaths for HMAS SYDNEY II

We dedicate this cylinder and wreaths to those who lost their lives in HMAS SYDNEY II. In the deaths of these men we recognise the futility of war and yet the hope that comes through your love for us all. We dedicate these symbols in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit.

Naval Ode

They have no grave
But the cruel sea,
No flowers at their head
A rusting hulk is their tombstone
Afast the ocean bed.

We will remember them
Lest we forget
